

It's time to bring books back to the center of our cultural conversation.
So stop by booth #2007 at 9:30 a.m. on Friday and talk to James Mustich, author of 1,000 Books to Read Before You Die.

Actually, stop by on Thursday, too, so we can tell you about Artisan's bid for cookbook of the year, The Noma Guide to Fermentation.

New Algonquin novels from bestselling thriller writer
Tim Johnston (The Current) and from bestselling mystery writer
B. A. Shapiro (The Collector's Apprentice). Plus the latest from Atlas Obscura, The Atlas Obscura Explorer's Guide for the World's Most Adventurous Kid. And our 50th anniversary!*

A few other highlights from our author schedule . . .

THURSDAY, MAY 31

- 10:00 a.m. Meet coauthors Dylan Thuras and Rosemary Mosco, who will be signing galleys of The Atlas Obscura Explorer's Guide for the World's Most Adventurous Kid (Workman).
- 11:00 a.m. Say hello to Grace Bonney, New York Times bestselling author of In the Company of Women, who will be signing copies of her new magazine, Good Company (Artisan).
- 12:00 p.m. Visiting all the way from Amsterdam are Flow magazine cofounders Irene Smit and Astrid van der Hulst, who will be signing finished copies of 50 Ways to Draw Your Beautiful, Ordinary Life (Workman).
- 1:30 p.m. Artful master of the mystery B. A. Shapiro will be in the booth, signing galleys for The Collector's Apprentice (Algonquin).

All book and galley signings and giveaways end when we run out of copies!

FRIDAY, JUNE 1

- 10:30 a.m. Photographer Jordan Matter will be on hand with some guest dancers to sign galleys of Born to Dance (Workman).
- 1:00 p.m. Stop by to meet Nova Ren Suma, who will be in the booth signing galleys of her new novel, A Room Away from the Wolves (Algonquin Young Readers).
- 2:00 p.m. And stick around to say hello to author Sara Farizan, signing galleys of Here to Stay (Algonquin Young Readers).

*Lift a glass to toast Workman's 50th!
Thursday at 5:00 p.m.
